Videographer Volunteer

Oxlajuj B'atz' (Thirteen Threads) is a non-profit indigenous women's empowerment and non-formal education organization working throughout Guatemala since 2004. We provide capacity-building skills training to Maya women's cooperatives throughout rural Guatemala. Our four program areas are: Artisan and Product Development; Democracy and Team Building; Health and Well-Being and Small Business.

In December 2010, we initiated a Maya Women's Center & Fair Trade Store, located in a historical building in downtown Panajachel. The Center houses a cooperative Fair Trade store, resource library, community space for meetings and special events, and provides a departure point for tours to the women's communities.

Responsibilities

- Filming a variety of workshops and events in Panajachel and participating communities
- Conducting interviews with workshop participants and community facilitators
- Creating a 10 minute promotional film for use online and in presentations
- Creating a slideshow or short film for looping in our Fair Trade Store
- Translating and subtitling all material produced
- Enhancing general online video and photography material
- Other related as needed

Preferred Skills, Knowledge, Abilities

- Intermediate Spanish and English
- Previous experience and/or studies in videography and video editing
- Previous work with an NGO or related experience in for-profit company
- Availability of minimum 2 month (preference for longer)
- Strong interpersonal and management skills
- Self-motivated and able to work independently in a constantly changing environment
- Computer literacy
- Organized and able to manage details
- Be able to travel to communities in rural Guatemala and take public transportation when needed
- Proven ability to complete tasks from start to finish
- Interest in women's issues, democracy and economic sustainability
